TABLE OF PLENTY | Dan Schutte

Come to the feast of heaven and earth

Come to the table of plenty

God will provide for all that we need

Here at the table of plenty

Oh come and sit at my table
Where saints and sinners are friends
I wait to welcome the lost and lonely
To share the cup of my love

Oh come and eat without money
Come to drink without price
My feast of gladness will feed your spirit
With faith and fullness of life

Sunday 9:00 am & 11:00 am

Gathering

YOUR LOVE IS DEEP | Jami Smith

Your love is deep, Your love is high

Your love is long, Your love is wide

Your love is deeper than my view of grace
Higher than this worldly place
Longer than this road I've traveled
Wider than the gap You filled

Who shall separate us
Who shall separate us from Your love
Nothing can separate us
Nothing can separate us from Your love

TODAY'S READINGS FROM SCRIPTURE: EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

READING 1 | IS 55:1-3

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; Come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM | Psalm 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

R* (cf. 16) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness. The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works. R

The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season; you open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. R

The LORD is just in all his ways and holy in all his works. The LORD is near to all who call upon him, to all who call upon him in truth. R

READING 2 | ROM 8:35, 37-39

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew | MT 14:13-21

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said, “This is a deserted place and it is already late; dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves.” But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.” Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over— twelve wicker baskets full. Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

Higher than the mountains that I face
Stronger than the power of the grave
Constant through the trial and the change

It never runs out on me

Because on and on and on and on it goes
For it overwhelms and satisfies my soul
And I never ever have to be afraid
One thing remains, one thing remains
